

CV Short English – Prof. Dr. Ariawan Gunadi, S.H., M.H.

Prof. Dr. Ariawan Gunadi, S.H., M.H. is the youngest professor of business law and international trade law in Indonesia, recognized by the Indonesian World Records Museum (MURI). Prof. Dr. Ariawan Gunadi often serves as an expert witness in various court cases, both domestically and internationally. He currently serves as the Chairman of Jakarta International Arbitration Centre.

Prof. Dr. Ariawan Gunadi is currently the Chairman of the Tarumanagara Foundation. The Tarumanagara Foundation is the parent organization of Tarumanagara University, Royal Taruma Hospital, Tarumanagara Institute, and several other companies under its umbrella. Prof. Dr. Ariawan Gunadi also has experience as a visiting lecturer at various higher education institutions, both within Indonesia and abroad. He currently serves as the Honorary Professor of the Military Law College (STHM). He served as the Vice-Rector of Tarumanagara University from 2016 to 2020 and has experience as a Rector at other institutions. Additionally, he is active as a Trustee, Supervisor, and Manager in various social foundations.

Prof. Dr. Ariawan Gunadi has corporate experience, having served as a member of the Board of Commissioners and as a director in several companies. He has also previously served as an expert in the Ministry, the Supreme Audit Agency (BPK), the Agency for Pancasila Ideology Education (BPIP), and the Jakarta Provincial Government. Furthermore, he founded the law firm AG & Partners and currently serves as its President Director/Managing Partner. He currently serves as the Supervisory Board/Commissioner of Global Entrepreneurship Network (GEN) Indonesia. He also serves as the Advisory Board of Wawasan Hukum Nusantara. Prof. Ariawan is also an accredited arbitrator and mediator in Indonesia and Singapore.

Prof. Dr. Ariawan Gunadi's academic experience includes studying Foundation/Corporate Governance at several universities in the United States. He frequently presents at international conferences, such as the Asian Law Institute Conference and ASIANSIL, alongside the UN Secretary-General and at other international events in Asia, Australia, Europe, China, and the United States. He has been invited as a Visiting Professor at Tsinghua University and several other universities.

Prof. Dr. Ariawan Gunadi has also been invited as a delegate in a meeting with the Indonesian Special Envoy to the United Nations (UN) & World Trade Organization (WTO) at the UN & WTO headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland. He is also appointed as the Chairman of the Central Board of ALPENINDO (Indonesian Penabur Alumni) and Vice-Chairman of the Indonesian Chinese Social Association (PSMTI) Central Board for Education and Health Affairs. He also currently serves as the Vice President Corporate Relation of ACSB (Asian Council for Small Business) Indonesia.

He is often a resource person on national TV and received the Best Professional 2020 award from Obsession Award, as well as the Indonesia Leadership and Professional Award 2021. Prof. Dr. Ariawan Gunadi is a MURI record holder and received the PWI Award 2023 from the Indonesian Journalists Association, the Indonesia Stock Exchange Award 2023 from the Indonesia Stock Exchange / IDX Channel, and awards from Tribun and Kompas Gramedia in the Mata Lokal Award as the Ace of Education.